

APPLIANCE WARRANTY INFORMATION

At Lastman's Bad Boy our goal is 100% satisfaction, let us make this right with you!

All of your appliances come with a one-year manufacture service warranty. The warranty covers all operational defects when used normally in accordance with the manufacture's guidelines. The technicians and authorized service partners provide friendly, efficient service while answering use and care questions and providing expert advice.

If service issues do arise, please email our Builder Service Representative, Nordam at builderservice@noobody.com or nordam@noobody.com with the following information:
